How to Use Connectives Effectively in Paragraphs

Choosing the Right Connective

It?s important to select connectives that accurately reflect the relationship between ideas. For example, if you want to add information, use "and" or "moreover." If contrasting ideas, "but" or "however" are suitable.

Placement of Connectives

Most connectives are placed at the beginning of a sentence or clause to link it to the previous idea. For example:

- Adding: She loves reading, and she often visits the library.
- Contrasting: It was raining, but we still played outside.

Varying Your Use of Connectives

Repetitive use of the same connectives can make writing monotonous. Encourage students to diversify their linking words to keep their writing interesting.

Using Connectives to Build Paragraphs

A well-structured paragraph often begins with a topic sentence, followed by supporting sentences linked with appropriate connectives. This structure enhances clarity and flow.

Example:

Topic sentence:

Many animals are nocturnal.

Supporting sentences with connectives:

For example, owls hunt at night, and bats are active after sunset. Additionally, some foxes prefer to hunt in the dark, which helps them avoid predators.
